

D-Factory Project is committed to respecting the privacy of its online visitors and to providing a secure environment for personal information that we collect on <https://www.d-factoryalgae.eu>, our website. This Privacy Policy describes what information we collect and how that information is collected and used.

PERSONAL INFORMATION PROVIDED BY YOU

We do not automatically collect any personally identifiable information. Nor does D-Factory Project specifically ask or knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. We obtain personal information about you ONLY if you elect to give us that information and for the sole purpose of allowing you to upload and post content on our Web sites. We collect personal information when you register to our e-newsletter service Web site, and/or when you communicate with us electronically using the contact email. Following is the personal information that we may collect from our Web site:

During Registration:

- First name, last name and middle initial
- E-mail Address

USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

D-FACTORY Project does not sell or share your personal information with non-affiliated third parties.

If you provide personal information to D-FACTORY Project, we may use it in the following limited ways:

- D-FACTORY Project may use your name, email and postal address to send you information advising you of our upcoming events, news, to send you the e-newsletter and other relevant information concerning the Project.
- D-FACTORY Project management team may use personal information for internal purposes, such as monitoring the interest in the Project and understanding to which targets the visitors belong.

D-FACTORY Project will disclose personally identifiable information if required by law to do so. D-FACTORY Project will not share or sell your personally identifiable information to third parties who provide products, promotions and services.

APPLICABILITY OF POLICY

This Privacy Policy applies to the D-FACTORY Project Web site.

SECURITY

D-FACTORY Project goes to great lengths to protect the confidentiality and integrity of any personal information you share with us over the Internet.

Our Web site has security measures in place to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of the information under our control. D-FACTORY project treats personal data such as credit card information as critical assets that must be guarded at all times against loss and unauthorized access. Our Web server is located in a locked, secure environment. All databases containing personal information are securely stored and protected behind a firewall.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

D-FACTORY Project will discontinue contact with any person upon oral or written request. Those wishing to receive communications from the Project can make that option during the registration process or by changing their permission settings in My Account.

If you have any further questions about our Privacy Policy, the information that we have collected from you online, the practices of our Web sites, your interaction with our Web sites or to correct and/or change contact information, please contact us: info@dfactoryproject.eu.
